

Applying For A Nonimmigrant Visa

The Embassy contracts with a private company, Visa Facilitation Services (VFS), to make appointments for nonimmigrant visa applicants, provide information on the visa process, and return visa'ed passports to applicants. There is an RM 32 fee for this service, payable at Alliance Bank along with the visa application fee.

Full instructions on applying for a nonimmigrant visa can be found on the VFS website. But in a nutshell, the process is as follows:

- Pay the application and VFS fees at any branch of Alliance Bank. See "Fees", above.
- Go to the VFS website and make an appointment online. Appointments are normally available within a few days. See here for up-to-date visa wait times.
- Complete the required application forms. See "Nonimmigrant Visa Forms" above.
- Come to the Embassy at the appointed date and time for an interview and fingerscanning.
- If a visa is approved, go to the VFS office the first business day after your interview to collect your passport. Or you may pay an extra fee to have VFS courier your passport to you.
